Student Voice Symposium

Symposium [sim-poh-zee-uhm]:

1. Noun. A meeting or conference for the discussion of a subject.
2. A collection of opinions.

Great Bay Charter School and SERESC are sponsoring a “Student Voice Symposium” that is designed to provide New Hampshire students an opportunity to express their thoughts about how to create and maintain a positive learning environment for all involved.

The Day Will Include:

- Check in and breakfast at 8:30 a.m.
- Introductions at 9:00 a.m.
- Small, student-facilitated discussions for brainstorming
- Larger group sessions
- Lunch
- Presentations of ideas for full group discussion
- Wrap up

Logistics:

Participating schools are encouraged to bring a “school team” consisting of up to 4 middle or high school aged students with an adult advisor.

A special forum for adults will discuss the importance of “Student Voice”.

Cost for this event is $200.00 for a team of five; $40.00 per individual
